

Mid-Plains Community College
Ogallala Extended Campus
Spring Term 2010

Community Education

Culinary Passport-Have you dreamt of taking a trip around the world? Do you like experiencing exotic foods? This class allows you to sample a variety of cuisines without having to apply for a passport! Participants will prepare and take home sweet and savory international dishes from a different country each week. Included will be information on different spices from around the world and how to purchase and care for them. Featured countries are: Pakistan, Egypt, Spain and South Africa
Dates: Thursdays Jan. 7-28, 6:30-9:00, Fee: $45 for classes, plus $12.50 per week for purchase of necessary food supplies Location: OHS Family and Consumer Science Room, Instructor: Lynn Smith

Tips on Using The Microsoft Outlook Calendar-In need of an assistant? Put your Microsoft Outlook calendar to work for you. Learn how to create "to do" lists, schedule and invite attendees to meetings, create an online rolodex and more! Remember the saying, "Work smarter not harder," this class will help you do just that!

Date: Thursday, Feb. 11, 12:00-1:00, Fee: $10.00, bring a sack lunch, Location: ESU 16, DL Room
Instructor: Melissa Garcia

Bob Ross Painting-Let the artist in you come out. The joy of painting is something you can do your entire life. Treat yourself to a fun, relaxing day just for you. You won't be disappointed.

Dates: Saturday, Feb. 27 and April 17, 9:00-4:00, Fee: $60.00 (covers cost of supplies) Location: Arterburn Youth Center Instructor: Rachelle Eversole

Conversational Spanish-This 7 week course teaches the basics of the Spanish language. It is a great class if you are planning a trip to Mexico, experiencing the use of more Spanish spoken at your work place or simply want to speak the basics of the Spanish language to function better in everyday situations.

Date: Thursdays April 22-June 4, 6:00-8:30, Fee: $35.00, plus $15:00 for book
Location: OHS Instructor: Bob Richter

Red Cross Babysitting Class- Do you love children? Do you want to earn some spending money this summer. Then this Red Cross Babysitting Class is the class for you. Learn how to prevent and respond to emergencies, create safe spaces for children to play, design fun activities, handle bedtime and discipline issues, diapering, feeding and dressing infants and gain confidence and valuable employment skills for yourself.

Date: TBA 8:30-4:00, Fee: $45.00, must pre-register, bring a sack lunch/snacks are provided,
Location: TBA Instructor: Melissa Allison

WEB 2.0 Social Networking- Feel a little lost when it comes to Facebook, Twitter and Skype? Yikes! These social networking sites will be explored in this one evening class. Learn the benefits of each site and discover the potential each has for your personal and professional life. Do not let this amazing technology pass you by. Get connected, it is easier and more fun than you think!

Date: Tuesday, Feb. 9, 6:30-8:00 Fee: $5/$10, Location: ESU 16
Instructor: Roger Adkins, Media/Technology Director ESU 16