

Associate of Applied Science Degree in Business Administration Online

Earn your Associates of Applied Science degree in Business Administration online from Mid-Plains Community College.

Classes are offered fall, spring and summer semesters. Enrollment is limited; so, hurry and register online today or visit us at www.mpcc.edu for more information.

PURPOSE

- This is an opportunity for students to seek employment following graduation in such areas as retailing, management, accounting, marketing, sales and computer information management.
- This online program is an opportunity for students to consider self-employment or entrepreneurship.

ADVANTAGES

- Enjoy the convenience of learning from home.
- Interact with peers from all over the country.
- Schedule your learning around your activities and your time.

Online courses offered spring semester beginning January 11, 2010:

Introduction to Accounting I	ACCT 1030
Leadership/Team Development	BSAD 1000
Personal & Professional Development	BSAD 1010
Business & Professional Speaking	BSAD 1030
Business Communications	BSAD 2250
Principles of Management	BSAD 2310
Business Computer Systems	BSAD 2510
Business Law I	BSAD 2710
Business Math & Calculators	OFFT 2080
Contemporary Econ Issues	ECON 1000

Begin your degree today! Register with our advisors at Mid-Plains Community College—Sherry Mihel (535-3710) in North Platte or Rick Mickelson (345-8102) in McCook or online at www.mpcc.edu.